Prophecy

Time: 1960
Scene: Rest Sanitarium in Pasadena, California

JIM Covert, running the "You're All In" Rest Home in Pasadena, is slowly becoming a multi-millionaire from the Seniors of the Class of 1950, who have been recovering from the hardships and work in their Senior Year. (Now are you so anxious to become a Senior?)

One day after Jim got through taking his reducing exercises (it seems he's put on a few pounds here and there), he was surprised with a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Quinn, (the former Martha Stout) and their two children. Martha is now established in her own Beauty Shoppee in Hayts Corners. In partnership with her is Miss Norma McCheyne, who, it has been claimed, helps beautify your other features. The beauty shop's motto is "If you aren't a mess, you will be." Norma has not decided to settle down to married life yet.

Well, of all things, here comes Glen "Set Um Up" White in his little blue Ford. Would you believe it, it still runs. With him is Jim "Swish" Mannix and Wally "Flash" McCutcheion. Ovid's three All Stars are all continuing their career in sports. I guess Jim still can't see a girl for a basketball, but Wally is visiting around Ovid frequently. Could Mary be the reason?

Marilyn Chamberlain, who is now a music teacher, has announced her coming marriage to a banker. Marilyn got her experience as Treasurer of the Senior Class. Suppose the banker has red hair?

We looked out the window just as Jim Simmons drove up in his new convertible. Out rolled his flock of eight kids. Jim has now settled down (obviously) to a happily married life. His life's ambition is to be rich enough to retire. Good luck, Jim.

We heard a rattle and discovered it to be Cynthia Wiswell arriving on a bicycle built for two. Where's the other party? Cynthia is now making a cross country tour to count the stones. Everyone thought she would use modeling as her career, but that biology in high school still remains foremost in her mind.

Crash! Don't get excited folks. Remember the three C's; remain calm, cool, and collected. That was just Mike Benovich, in his new rocket plane, "Connie." It's his method of ridding himself of the teachers and girls.

Clipety Clop! Clipety Clop! Why of all things - it's Doris and Bob Baldorf in their horse and buggy. It looks like Doris' old saying still remains, "I just can't afford it."

We were pleased with a visit from the Senator of the state. We knew him as Ray Bowers. Raymond Elliot Paul Bowers Jr. is working on the legislation of a new bill. The bill? No hours of work and higher pay.

For goodness sakes, here comes Bob "Wing Ding" Lynch on a tractor. After a number of questions, we discovered him to be the most progressive farmer in the last ten years. He raises potaters.

A messenger arrived on his motorcycle with a telegram concerning Pat Pemberton. The news? She got her job at Willard. Although a stenographer she still has Jack on her mind. The messenger, who turned out to be none other than Bill Harris, has toured the country, but settled down in his father's business. You guessed it, "The Shoe Shop."

We were pleased with a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reff, Mrs. Reff formerly recognized as Pat Montford. They traveled all the way from Sampson in their privately owned helicopter. Pat is all through Cortland State and has taken over Miss Tiedman's duties. Pat also brought us the sad news that Eileen "Stretch" O'Connell couldn't escape her kids long enough to visit us. You see, she teaches kindergarten at O. C. S. Ovid should be proud of its teachers now. They're good. They graduated in the Class of '50.

Nancy Kerns and Charles Eddy, now married and employed at Willard, arrived just in time in their Buick for our gathering. Nancy is a secretary, while Charles is working (we wonder) as a chemist in the lab. Seems he is very scientifically minded. Nancy brought us the news that Cora Fisher is busily decorating her new home in Hector. She and Don call their home "Setting Pretty On The Edge Of A Cliff." Their rule is "Live long or not at all."

Everyone has been included in our session except our faculty advisor, Mrs. Ditmars. Oh, there she is now. We hardly recognize her. She has been at Jim's Home using her password "Quiet." She just can't stand noise since those Seniors.

Class Will

To those who are left to roam the halls of Ovid High in our footsteps, we, the Senior Class of 1950, being of sound mind (?) and body (we hope) leave the following:

Nancy Kerns leaves her affection for Charles Eddy to Beverly Boyce.
James Covert leaves his ability to be a great lover to Bob Pettingill.
To Maureen Vreeland we leave a ball and chain to help her catch her man.
Charles Eddy leaves his keyboard magic to Bob DeOrio.
To Dick Brooks we leave a motor bike, so he won't have to hitch home in the early hours from Lodi.
Pat Pemberton leaves an interest in the Guthrie family to Glenn Parish.
To Patti Clarke we leave the Coco-Cola Bottling Company.
Eileen O'Connell leaves her quiet way to Janet Amici.
James Simmons leaves the road to Interlaken to James Granger.
Bill Harris leaves his poor excuse for a motor cycle to George Ott.
Marilyn Chamberlain leaves her red hair and freckles to Paul Martin.
To Betty Lou Conkling we leave nothing, she already has Bruce.
Cynthia Wiswell leaves her curly hair to Norine Poth.
Martha Stout leaves her height to Eugenia Kaiser.
Cora Fisher leaves her studious ways to Karl Limner.
Wally McCutcheon leaves his slowness to Marjorie Guthrie.
Doris Nye leaves her giggling to Agnes MacCheyne.
Pat Montford leaves her trim waistline to Virginia Sweet.
Ray Bowers leaves his voice to Beatrice Roe.
Bob Lynch leaves his bright blue sweater to Pat Keady.
Norma MacCheyne leaves her dancing ability to Edward MacDonald.
Pat Pemberton leaves her sweaters to Emma Therkeldsen.
To Betty Deats we leave nothing, she has Sherman.
Jimmy Mannix leaves his ability in Biology to Barbara Engel.
To Jack Christensen we leave a plow and a plot of land.
Mike Benkovich leaves his liking for girls to Walter Depew.
Glenn White leaves his curly hair and way with older women to Harold Hayes.

OVID Central School won its first football championship since 1939, this year. Last year they received a trophy but the league ended in a 3 way tie for first place between Ovid, Interlaken, and Trumansburg. This season the "Green and Gold" had one of its strongest teams in recent years. They copped five out of five games to bring the 1949 football trophy to Ovid.

The Scores Were:

Ovid 12	Interlaken 6
Ovid 26	Odessa 15
Ovid 31	Trumansburg 14
Ovid 42	Romulus 10
Ovid 43	Dundee 27

This year Coach Kay had to mold a whole new basketball team due to the graduation of the first string, last June. There were but three veterans and to these Coach added some of last year's J. V. regulars. The team at the mid-year mark had a pretty good league standing winning four and losing but three.

We have a very promising J. V. team this year which has showed up very well in league play, winning six and losing but one so far. Mr. Natoli as assistant Coach has coached the Junior Varsity to a very successful season.
